

ECPD News Release

Date: 7/3/2006

Case #: 06-14719

Author ID: Sgt. A. Falk

On 06-29-06 @ 0249 hrs. ECPD Patrol Officers responded to the parking lot of Goodwill, 3605 Gateway Dr. on a report of a Battery Case where a victim was struck with a bat.

Upon arrival, victim Jordan Sather (18) was on the ground bleeding from a head injury. A second victim, Travis Audorff (18) was also present and injured. Both victims were transported to the hospital for medical treatment.

Through investigation, Officers learned that Sather and Audorff had been involved in a fight with James Toy (17). Toy was arrested later in the morning and charged with Felony Aggravated Battery for his involvement. Toy has since made an initial appearance in court, and received a $5000.00 signature bond, with house arrest.

Sather has remained hospitalized since the incident and is being treated for significant injuries.

Several other individuals were present at the scene of the fight, and fled prior to police arrival. The investigation is still on-going. We are in the process of contacting witnesses and obtaining all sides of the story. Further criminal charges may be filed by the District Attorney's Office as a result of the investigation.
